Product Description

As accessories add up on the desktop, space becomes a premium, especially when you add a laptop. With the Universal Tabletop Laptop Riser, you can raise your laptop to a comfortable viewing height, while also cutting down on desktop clutter. Constructed of durable steel and aluminum, this rock-solid riser is sturdy enough to support any size laptop up to 16". Stepless design means no tools are needed to quickly adjust the height anywhere between 5.9" and 7.9" or tilt the angle from 0° to 45°. Ample storage underneath lets you stow an external keyboard, input devices, or other peripherals.
