The Mobile Edge SlipSuits are the ultimate combination of mobile convenience and protection. Built to carry your netbook in a skin of padded neoprene, the SlipSuit can be carried on it's own, or as extra protection inside a larger carrying case.

Featuring a large, exterior front pocket for your power supply or other accessories, a Nylon carrying strap for ease of use, and heavy-duty zipper pulls, the SlipSuit ensures both mobility and protection for your UltraPortable computer. Water-resistant Neoprene and reinforced corners make sure that your netbook is protected, whether you're on the road or in the classroom.

For the best on-the-go carrying solution, look no further than the SlipSuit!
