Galaxy Book5 Galaxy AI ✨

Copilot requires an internet connection and Microsoft account. Galaxy AI features require compatible phone, Samsung account and internet connection. May require Windows Update or app download from the Microsoft Store.

A Galaxy PC for all

Smarter. Faster. Built to keep up.

Stay in control of your day with a PC that's fast, smart and built to power through every task — with a wide variety of ports to keep you connected and at your most productive.

See the difference

See sharp visuals without distracting glares, indoors or out, on a spacious 15.6" FHD LED screen.

Tasks to texts, all in one place with Phone Link

No need to switch between your phone and PC — Phone Link¹ lets you text back, manage mobile notifications and more, right on your Galaxy Book5 screen.²

Instant answers, now at your fingertips

Simplify your internet searches with AI Select.³ Just circle images, drag over text or click QR codes for quick search results.

Built to keep up with you

Power through your day with a battery built to keep up with you, whether you're moving from meeting to meeting in your office campus or getting work done on the go.⁴

Thin, light and ready to go

Portability meets powerful performance in Galaxy Book5. Slide it into your bag and easily carry it everywhere you go thanks to its lightweight design.
