Product Description

IT professionals working in mixed technology environments often require versatile docking solutions to optimise productivity. For users who need to manage multiple tasks simultaneously—such as software developers, graphic designers, or data analysts—having the capability to connect up to four external displays is essential. The SD5920T EQ Thunderbolt™ 4 Quad 4K Hybrid Dock with DisplayLink® Technology is designed to meet these needs, providing a seamless connection for both Thunderbolt™ and USB-C® devices. This high speed dock not only supports stunning Quad 4K video output across multiple platforms—Windows, macOS, and ChromeOS—but also enhances workflow efficiency by allowing users to multitask effortlessly.
