HPE Insight Management Optimization Service

HPE Lifecycle Event Services

Optimizing the capabilities of HPE Insight Software technologies is key to the success of your data center. HPE Insight Management Optimization Service is a custom service designed to optimize performance and reliability, as well as the future expansion and ongoing management of your networked environment to help you get the most out of your Insight Management investment.

HPE Insight Management Optimization Service is a custom Statement of Work (SOW) service that is designed to enhance your ability to work with and utilize any or all of the Insight Management components and features on a supported HPE ProLiant ML, HPE ProLiant DL, or HPE BladeSystem central management server. The service is customized to meet the requirements of your specific IT needs and addresses optimization issues such as leveraging HPE Dynamic Power Capping, implementing virtual machine management capabilities, or customizing HPE Systems Insight Manager (SIM). Optimization occurs on the HPE SIM Central Management Server (CMS) and its managed nodes, and might include moving Microsoft® SQL Server Express to a standalone Microsoft SQL Server or moving Insight Control server provisioning or Insight Control server. The Hewlett Packard Enterprise service specialist will guide you through developing a Statement of Work, the onsite delivery steps, and the knowledge transfer process to meet your needs.
